WE GOT SKILLS. LIFE SKILLS.

When you work at a bank, you pick up common sense tips on investing, saving, and staying safe in the Cyber world. That kind of info is priceless.

8

BANKING AT YOUR FINGERTIPS, LITERALLY.

Never utter the words, "Wish I had gotten to the bank!"

9

WE ALL GET SMART TOGETHER.

We have TONS of online, in-person and on-the-job training to help you become an awesome banker and gain real world experience that can transfer to a lot of businesses. And select students who are focusing on financial careers have been able to redeem college credits for training. Cha-ching!

1

FOOD.

So much food. We don't go hungry here. Just trust us on this one.

BIG HEARTS.

We logged over 1,900 volunteer hours in 2019. We all feel it's our duty to make the communities we serve a great place to live, too. From events like beer gardens, parades, pig roasts and walk/runs, to Christmas lightings, family festivals and golf outings, a PWSB representative is there.

3

BENEFITS AND FLEXIBILITY.

Sure, we've got all the health, life, dental, disability insurance stuff handled for workers above 30 hours per week. Buuuuut, we also have personal time off, flex time and sick days, too.

OPPORTUNITY.

30% of employees have been promoted at least once in their career. And outside of banking-related departments, don't forget we have areas like security, HR, marketing and IT, too.

WE ARE THE OPPOSITE OF BORING.

Somehow we always have a reason to celebrate. We have fun parties, we celebrate birthdays, we hold contests to show our creative sides. So whoever told you banking was boring, they might want to talk to one of us first.

MORE THAN 120 YEARS OF NICE.

We donated $380,000 to over 150 organizations in 2019. For a bank our size, it's a pretty great thing. And unlike other banks, we work hard to support organizations consistently year to year.
